DECLARATION OF BENJAMIN R. OSBORN

I, Benjamin R. Osborn, declare:

1. I am an attorney representing Plaintiff Sergio Bonilla in this lawsuit.
2. Tara McGuane, the Associate Direct of Compliance and IP at PeopleConnect, Inc., filed a Declaration stating that Mr. Bonilla created his account with Classmates.com in December 2007. ECF No. 45-1 at 2.
3. As part of my investigation of this lawsuit, on June 5, 2021, and again on June 7, 2021, I searched the Internet Archive at archive.org/web (also known as the “wayback machine”) for screenshots showing what the registration process for Classmates.com looked like in December 2007.
4. I located three screenshots of pages showing the Classmates registration process as it existed in late 2004. All three screenshots are from September 2004. Exhibit 1.
5. None of the three pages include text or any other indication that by registering an account with Classmates, the user was agreeing to a Terms of Service (“TOS”). Id.
6. On all three pages, there is only a single reference to the TOS: a hyperlink labelled “Terms of Service” in small font at the bottom of the page, adjacent to hyperlinks connecting to other parts of the site. Id. There is no indication the user was asked to review the TOS before proceeding with registration, and no indication a user registering with the site was ever shown the TOS as part of creating her account. Id.
7. As part of my investigation of this lawsuit, on April 16, 2021, I created an account on Classmates.com using the email address ben.whipple42@gmail.com. I created the account for the purpose of investigating current and prospective clients’ claims against Classmates.com.

8. The current Classmates Terms of Service (“TOS”) contains a clause entitled “Arbitration Opt-Out” that purports to allow any user to opt-out of the arbitration clause. The clause states in its entirety:

ARBITRATION OPT-OUT. You have the right to opt-out and not be bound by this arbitration provision by sending written notice of your decision to opt-out to: PeopleConnect Arbitration Opt-Out, 1501 Fourth Avenue, Suite 400, Seattle, WA 98101. This notice must be sent within thirty (30) days of your first use of the Services or, if you are already a user of the Services upon initial release of this arbitration provision, within thirty (30) days of our email notice to you of that initial release.

The opt-out notice must state that you do not agree to this agreement to arbitrate and must include your name, address, phone number and email address(es) used to register with or use the Services. You must sign the opt-out notice for it be effective. Any opt-out not received within the applicable thirty (30) day period set forth above will not be valid.

If you opt-out of the agreement to arbitrate, you and the PeopleConnect Entities agree that any Disputes will be resolved by a state or federal court located in King County, Washington, and you consent to the jurisdiction and venue of such court.

Declaration of Tara McGuane, ECF No. 45-1 at 23.

9. On April 16, 2021, I mailed an opt-out notice to Classmates.com. Exhibit 2 (photograph of notice and envelope). The notice complied with the requirements Classmates described in the TOS. I addressed the envelope as specified; I sent it within 30 days of creating the account; I stated that I did not agree to arbitrate; I included my phone number and email address; and I signed the notice. Id.

10. Classmates responded to my attempt to opt-out of arbitration by terminating my account without warning and without any means of redress.

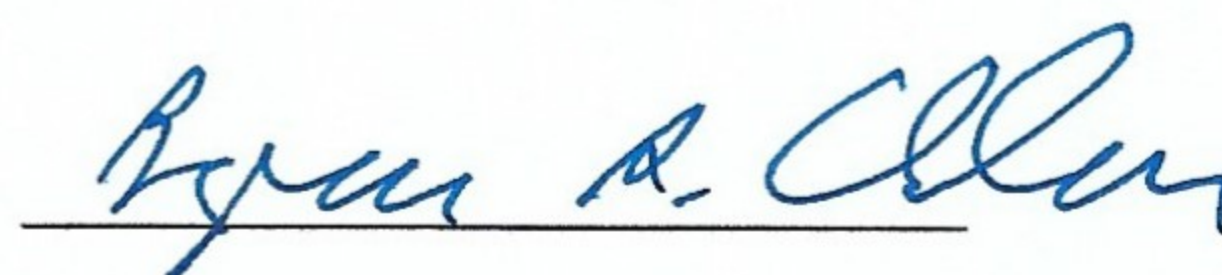

11. On Thursday, April 22, 2021, five days after I sent the opt-out notice, Classmates sent an email to ben.whipple42@gmail.com informing me that my “Classmates registration has been removed as requested.” Exhibit 2 (screenshot of email from membercare@classmates.com).

12. Contrary to Classmates' statement, at no time did I request my registration be removed.

13. As of April 22, 2021, the account associated with ben.whipple42@gmail.com has been terminated, and I am no longer able to log in to Classmates using that account.

14. The above-stated facts show that the opt-out procedures described in Classmates' TOS are illusory. While Classmates represents that users may opt-out of arbitration and continue using the site, in fact Classmates responds to opt-out request by immediately terminating user accounts.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct, and that I executed this Declaration on June 7, 2021, in Brooklyn, New York.

Hi Ben,

Thank you for your recent letter regarding your membership. I'm more than happy to assist you.

Your free Classmates registration has been removed as requested.

Please disregard any residual emails from us over the next 10 days or so, since some email might already be scheduled for delivery.

In the future, if you find yourself wanting to reconnect with high school friends and memories, we hope you'll give Classmates.com another try.

Sincerely,

Peggy
